Andrea M. Stratford, Director

FROM THE DIRECTOR

Good afternoon, and thank you for tuning in!

After a long day of work, you come home, feed the kids, put everyone to bed, and it's (finally!) time to kick back. You settle into a recliner, flip on the T.V., and allow the day's tension to melt away as you escape into a favorite show. Hopefully today brings you some of the same escapism, as you settle in and enjoy everything from old classics such as Cheers and Loveboat to newer and less recognizable tunes like Zoey 101 and Glee. We've even mixed in one of the greatest commercials that ever aired, I'd Like to Buy the World a Coke.

We all deserve a little escape sometimes into a fictional world created by masterful writers and cinematography, as life can be quite the rollercoaster ride, full of unexpected twists and challenges. Today's shows are dedicated to Miss Marilyn, who was the embodiment of passion and spirit. She loved life, her children, her grandchildren; she knew how to have fun, laughed long and loud, and loved everything fancy! She would have loved every second of today, and we are so grateful she was a part of our studio and our lives for over 28 years. She loved your children and she is most definitely so proud of them today as they take the stage.

Thank you for joining us today, and for sharing your children with us. I truly appreciate the dedication, heart, selflessness and talent that goes into making a production like this happen. Sit back, relax, and allow yourself to escape into the world of television favorites. Miss Marilyn, we know you are watching -we hope you enjoy the show and we know you are here with us.

"I'll be there for you, when the rain starts to fall, I'll be there for you, like I've been there before, I'll be there for you, 'cause you're there for me too."

Love,
Andrea
